

In South Australia I was born

In South Australia I was born,
In South Australia round Cape Horn

South Australia's my native land
Full of flies and thieves and rocks and sand

As I walked out along the quay
'Twas there I first met Liza Lee

I loved her all night and I loved her all day
And I loved her until we sailed away

Liza Lee, she promised me
When I returned she would marry me

Now there's just one thing that grieves my mind
To leave my Liza Lee behind

I saw Liza Lee starting to cry
It broke my heart to wave goodbye

I wish I was on Australia's strand
With a bottle of whiskey in my hand

I'll drink a glass on a foreign shore,
And one to the girl that I adore.

Now fare thee well, and fare thee well,
For sweet news to my girl I'll tell.
