

Where The Lazy Murray River Rolls Along

Buddy Williams

D7 G C G G A7

Verses

The twilight soft-ly gathers 'round my heart out on the
The sil-v'ry moon is shin ing down by the riv-er

9 D7 D+ G D7 G

plain, And na-ture sett-les down in peace to rest, Had to sit down by the side, Where we of - ten used to wan-der She and I, I can al-most hear her riv-er side, My heart is filled with pain; And I dream of the girl that I loved best.

15 A7 D7 G

singing, Feel her arms a-round me clinging, As she did in those happ - y days gone by.

21 C G A7 D7

We were marr-ied in the springtime, I re - mem-ber well and plain; The bells seemed to
Our life was gay and happ - y, In our world of love and dreams; My love for her grew

27 D+ G D7 G C G A7

ring a happ-y song. Now be - neath a bed of vio-lets she is sleep-ing free from ve - ry deep and strong. But I feel her pres-ence near me as I sit a - lone to -

33 D7 G Chorus G C G

pain, Where the la-zy Murray riv-er rolls a - long. There'a a sigh on ev-ry breeze, There's night, Where the la-zy Murray riv-er rolls a - long.

41 A7 Asus A7 D7 G D7 G C

sobbing in the trees; The birds seem to sing the sadd-est songs. Oh the sunshine plays no more 'round our litt-le homestead door, Where the La-zy Murray River rolls a - long.

48 G A7 Asus A7 D7 G D7 G