Tunes appear in the same order on the CD as they do on this page

This is the seventh in a series of books and CDs prepared for sessions at the National Folk Festival, some 445 tunes in all. Other books and CDs were prepared in 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, & 2013. These volumes are available via the Bush Traditions Website <http://www.bushtraditions.org/publications.htm>.

The objective of preparing these books has been to present a selection of tunes that form part of Australia's settler heritage to those who are interested, with simple legible transcriptions, together with clearly audible rendition of the tune.

The preparation of this book and the operation of the sessions at the NFF are supported by Bush Traditions - a non-profit organisation that seeks to foster interest in, knowledge about, and enjoyment of Australia's cultural heritage of music, dance, poetry and folklore. Bush Traditions currently arranges a weekend of dance in Bundanoon, NSW, over the long weekend in June, and a weekend of music, song and dance in Goulburn over the NSW & ACT October long weekend.
