

Colum Sands

Between the Earth and the Sky

Contents

Introduction	7
Songs, Paintings and Stories
The Man with the Cap – A song from the pace and place of growing up	12	Lookin' the loan of a spade – Learning to understand what's not said	52
The March Ditch – A farming community, united and divided	16	I'm the king of the castle – Remembering a children's song	56
Newry Market – Beyond the horizon of the hawthorn hedges	20	One of these days – Finding the time	60
Jackson Johnston – Songs from a ceili house in the country	24	Directions – Finding the way	64
Buskers – Songs from the streets of a town	28	The Marching Season – Finding a solution, in a dream	68
Almost Every Circumstance – A song of unrequited love	32	Good Friday never changes – Thoughts at a train station	72
Whatever you say, say nothing – Do you see who's listening now?	36	Long road to perfection – The price of progress	76
The Coming of Europe – Playing ball with history	40	Blame the world – Don't blame me...	80
Goethe's Song – A love song from Germany	44	Last house in the street – A song for the children	84
I'm a terrible man – While on the subject of translations	48	The Night is Young – A song for the road	88
		Colum McEvoy and Andrea Rea	92
		Discography and Acknowledgements	94