Ken Prato

---

“But there is another force which drives him to work ever harder and harder – an irresistible compulsion to shear more sheep in the day than someone shearing alongside, or ultimately, to be a ‘gun’, and ‘ring the shed’.”

---

“The competitive world of the shearer is revealed in the language of the shed.”

Monica Jackson, Weekly Times

“Will help the non-shearing world better understand what goes on in the mind of a shearer.”

Ray Frawley, The Courier, Ballarat

“Forty years of shearing in sheds across Victoria and interstate has given Ken plenty of stories to tell”

Phoebe Stewart, Hamilton Spectator

“An entertaining anthology”

Geoff Adams, Country News, Shepparton

“Down-to-earth”

Veana Scott, Wagin Argus, Western Australia
