

SHOUT FOR THE ADDER

and other bush yarns

From the author of THE FUNNY BUGGER

PLEASE RETURN TO
WAL (0407 86 9696)
AT VFMC

Keith Garvey

Illustrated by Emile Mercier

Shout for the Adder is the second volume of bush yarns from the pen of Australia's best known humorist.

All the colorful and memorable characters from The Funny Bugger appear again, embroiled in more of their distinctive Australian bush adventures: Black Jack Carmody and his quiet courage and generosity, Rusty Ned Cook's rebellious violence, Wild Dog Stacey's cunning. The natural extremes of heat, flood, fire and drought are met by these Australians of the outback with passion, hate, love and comradeship.

There are moments of great hilarity, fast-moving drama and heart-rending tragedy. These tales make compelling reading for those who enjoy a good story about the strengths and weaknesses of human nature set against the raw Australian outback of years past.

Contents

- Foreword ix
- Shout for the Adder 1
- Never trust a Dingo 20
- Just Watty 39
- The Long Bloke 56
- A Deal in Hides 65
- Bushman's Carnival 89
- A Matter of Christianity 117
- Meat-Hungry 123
- A Matter of Insurance 139
- A Real Lively Send-Off 157
- Rose of Bourke 164
- A True Friend Passes 188