Looking for Dad

Bill 'Swampy' Marsh

Looking for Dad is the heartwarming story of Bill Marsh's journey back to the many places where his father lived and worked. It is the journey all men should make, to discover the gifts of life and love shared—but so rarely understood or expressed—between fathers and sons.

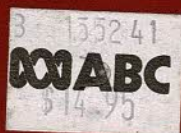

Travelling in his father's footsteps we are led into the throng of outrageous, lovable, eccentric characters—battlers, young lovers, old mates from school days, girls in cafes, vagrants, spirits, barbers, storytellers, Bill's first dog 'Pedro the Fisherman' and the half-man, half-beast Yowie which roams the Pilliga Scrub.

Looking for Dad is all about resolve, set within an extraordinary father-son relationship. It's about those moments you wish would last forever. It revives an Australia of courage, loyalty, and most of all, no matter what life dishes out... humour.
